Lyons Given Edge in Race for Governor

Leads by Large Margin in This Area, Straw Vote Indicates

A close pickup made by unbiased and authoritative sources leaves little doubt that Richard J. Lyons will be the G. O. P. choice for United States senator, in the Republican primary election next Tuesday. The Lake county vote seems almost a certainty as favoring the pair with a great majority of votes, and reports from other downstate counties bear out the prediction that they will come to the Cook county line with majorities of well over 100,000 votes.

Opposing Lyons in what has been a fairly stirring campaign for the Republican endorsement at the primaries, has been Dwight H. Green. Green's chances are believed by many to have been cut down somewhat in this area by disclosures that apparently reveal some sort of an alliance with the not-so-favorably-regarded Kelly-Nash political "machine" in Chicago.

A Waukegan "straw vote" poll shows Lyons leading, 457 to 177 over Green. A Woodstock poll gives him a margin of 127 to 63.

Ralph E. Church, who has for several years served the tenth Illinois district as representative in Washington, D. C., is waging a rather late (and by feel, somewhat inadvisable) but nevertheless earnest campaign as Lyons' rival for the Republican endorsement for U. S. Senator.

The ratio of votes for Lyons and ready according to a Waukegan poll, the 354 to 247; in Woodstock, 135 slight of.

Methodist Rally Attended by 150

Dr. Forsyth of Chicago Is Heard by Delegates from Five Churches

More than 150 were present at the 11 o'clock rally service held in the Antioch Methodist church Sunday morning to hear Dr. Nathaniel Forsyth of Chicago preach. Represented in the attendance were the Salem, Wilmet, Bristol and Lake Villa Methodist churches, which joined with the Antioch parish in sponsoring the all-day Sunday rally program held here.

A pot luck fellowship luncheon was held at 12:30 with Dr. Forsyth as a guest of honor. Forty-six were present. The afternoon was devoted to a "workers' conference" for parents, Sunday school teachers and others interested in religious education. Dr. Forsyth, who is recognized as a leader in this field, was in charge.

On Saturday afternoon, the same five churches held a "training school" for Sunday school workers in the Salem Methodist church.

Mrs. Bartlett of Fort Atkinson, Wis., a conference member of the Methodist board of education, was in charge of a course in "Beginners' and Primary Methods."

A second course, entitled "A Bird's Eye View of the Bible," was under the charge of the Rev. I. B. Allen, pastor of the Lake Villa church.

Social Security Board Representative Here Next Wednesday

For the convenience of employers and employees in this vicinity who desire assistance and information relative to the old-age and survivors insurance system of the Federal Social Security Act, as amended, Albert S. Lewis, manager of the Waukegan field office of the Social Security board will be in Antioch at the Post Office, Wednesday, April 10, 9:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m.

Inquiries may also be made by letter or telephone at the field office of the Board located in the Post Office in Waukegan.

Many employers and wage earners wish information concerning old-age and survivors insurance as well as other phases of the Federal Social Security program, Mr. Lewis said. "We are glad to be able to make direct contact possible for them and this personal service will be given regularly to the people in this area by the Waukegan office."

"Machine" Acts to Aid Favorite Democratic Sons

Kelly-Nash Bosses Point to Squares Voters Are Supposed to Mark

The more or less famous Democratic "political machine" headed by Mayor Ed Kelly and Patrick A. Nash, Cook county chairman, swung in final desperate action this week to secure victory for their favorites. A marked sample ballot put out by the "machine" carries only the names of those candidates who have won favor from the big shots.

Heading the marked ballot is the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt, for president, and below it, in small type, "other candidates." Then follows in the same manner the other "favorites," for U. S. Senate, James M. Slattery; Governor, Harry B. Hershey; Lieutenant, Louis E. Lewis; (George Maypole's name omitted—George comes under the heading of "other candidates"); secretary of state, Edward J. Hughes (unopposed); auditor of public accounts, John C. Martin; state treasurer, Homer Mat Adams; attorney general, Harold G. Ward; congressman-at-large, T. V. Smith and Walter J. Orlikowski. (The Cook county markings are of lesser importance to Lake county voters.)

Rep. Thomas J. Bolger, the Horner administration candidate for representative from the 8th district, is favored to win over Jack Hoff, the Lake county entrant.

Bartlett Is Named School Treasurer For Eleventh Term

Mayor George B. Bartlett was appointed treasurer of Antioch township school funds for the 11th two-year term at the semi-annual meeting of trustees here Monday night. Bartlett has served as custodian of the local school funds for 20 years.

It was Bartlett who through his work in handling school funds made the discovery that high school districts were not paying their proportionate share of the administration and other costs of the treasurer's office, and that the entire costs were being paid by the grade school districts. He brought the matter to the attention of a state school official, who was influential in securing the passage of a law in the legislature at the last session which provides that the costs of the office be spread equally among all districts.

School Boards to Hear Legal Matters Discussed

The discussion of school board problems and legal matters affecting schools will feature a meeting of school board members called for Friday evening at the Grayslake school by W. C. Petty, county superintendent. Members of boards of education and principals or superintendents are also being invited to attend.

Democratic Rally at Cermak's Well Attended

About 150 were present at a Democratic rally held at Cermak's newly remodeled tavern, Loon Lake, Wednesday evening. A number of Lake county Democratic candidates were guests and gave talks, and refreshments were served. Good wishes were extended by the gathering to the candidates, including Charles Cermak, Jr., a candidate to succeed himself as precinct committeeman.

Peter Petersen, Town Marshal, Dies Suddenly

Succumbs to Heart Attack at Age of 61; Firemen Are Pallbearers

Members of the Antioch Volunteer Fire department, in dress uniform, acted as pallbearers at the funeral service held for Peter Petersen, village marshal, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Strang's funeral home.

Petersen's death Saturday from a heart attack was a shock to the entire village. He was highly regarded throughout the community, and a large gathering was present to pay final respects to him.

In tribute to his memory, all Antioch business establishments were closed from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The Rev. W. C. Henslee, pastor of the Antioch Methodist church, officiated at the service. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Had Been Ill

Petersen, who served as village marshal for the past six years, had been convalescing from an illness which had kept him confined to his home on Johnson street during a part of the winter. With the approach of warmer weather he had improved considerably and had begun to resume his regular work.

Among Petersen's duties was that of acting as "traffic cop" at the Main and Depot street intersection at the Antioch grade school. The grade school children considered him their staunch friend, and when he was ill this winter they took up a collection of nickels to buy flowers which were brought to his home to cheer him.

On Saturday he carried on his usual line of work. He looked after the pumping system at the village pump house, which was under his supervision; blew the fire whistle at 12 o'clock noon as was his usual custom; and returned to the village hall to check up on the heating system.

Around 2:30 o'clock he started for the pump house on Orchard street. As he was crossing the lawn of the village park he was seen to fall. Mrs. Maud Hirtgen, beauty shop owner, and Elmer Hunter, fire department engineer, saw him and rushed to his aid. They summoned Dr. W. W. Warriner and the Antioch Rescue squad, which has an inhalator. The squad worked for an hour in the endeavor to resuscitate him, finally abandoning its efforts when the physician advised them that it was hopeless.

Born in Denmark
Petersen was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, May 17, 1878, and came to the United States at the age of 16. He took up the cement trade and was a cement finisher in Chicago.

Following his marriage in 1904 he moved to Antioch, working here as a mason and cement contractor. He became a member of the Antioch Volunteer Fire department in 1920 and in 1933 was selected to act as village marshal and also as supervisor of the village pumping system.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Carrie Petersen of Antioch; three daughters, Myrtle Petersen, Mrs. Raymond McCarthy and Mrs. Richard Curlee of Waukegan, and three sons, Elmer, Norman and Neil of Antioch. A fourth son, Arthur, preceded him in death. There are four grandchildren.

He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Harold B. Johnson, Oak Park, and Mrs. Richard Anderson, Chicago, and by a stepmother, living in the Eastern Star home in Norwood Park.

Business Women's Club Elects Mrs. Rentner

Mrs. Vera Rentner was elected president of the Antioch Business and Professional Women's club at a meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Herman Holbek. She succeeds Mrs. C. E. Hennings, who served during the past year.

Mrs. Esther Bennett was chosen vice-president; Miss Marion Johnson secretary and Mrs. S. B. Nelson, treasurer.

A six o'clock dinner was given by the losing team for the winners in a ticket-selling contest held in connection with the public lecture by news photographer Ray Scott which the club recently sponsored here. The dinner, at which covers were laid for 25, was followed with the business period and election.

The club's next meeting will be held May 6, at the home of Mrs. Otto Klass, with Mrs. H. B. Gaston as assisting hostess.

School Board Elections Set for April 13

Three Contest for Ferris, Maplethorpe Posts, on H. S. Board

Two members of the Antioch Township High School board will be chosen at the district school election to be held April 13. Members whose terms expire this April are Arthur Maplethorpe, president, and Mrs. Jean Ferris, secretary. Members of the grade school board will also be elected on that date.

The Antioch High School board consists of five members, elected for three year terms. The other members of the board are Walter Hills, who was elected in 1938 and who has another year to serve, and Paul Chase and James McMillen, elected in 1939, each with two years of their term left.

Both Maplethorpe and Mrs. Ferris are candidates for re-election. Maplethorpe was named president at the organization meeting held last year by the board, following the election in which George White, then president, and Helen (Mrs. Lester) Osmond were defeated by Chase and McMillen in an election that drew one of the largest votes ever recorded here.

Grade School to Elect Three
No opposition has come forth to oppose the candidates running for election on the grade school board of education. A president and two board members are to be elected on Saturday, April 13, when the hours of voting will be from 1 to 6 p. m.

Candidate for president is Robert J. Wilton, board member whose term expires this April; and candidates for the two vacancies as board members are Mrs. Helen Patrovsky and Roy E. Burdick. Retiring from the board are Mrs. C. L. Kuttel and Joseph Horton.

Members are Elmer Hawkins, Mrs. Myrtle Klass.

Two board members are elected each year to serve for three years, and the president is elected by direct vote of the people to serve for one year.

Hold Services for Herman Feldmann

Grass Lake Resident, 61, Is Believed Victim of Accidental Drowning

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 1 o'clock for Herman Feldmann, Route 1, who was drowned accidentally in the channel at the Groveland Park subdivision near Grass Lake. The Rev. W. C. Henslee officiated at the services, at Strang's funeral home. Burial was in Waldheim cemetery, Chicago.

Feldmann is believed to have slipped from a pontoon bridge as he was crossing it on his way to his home Tuesday evening about 9:30 o'clock from a visit in Antioch. His body was discovered the following day by William Malley as he was out exercising two dogs.

Feldmann, who was 61 years of age, is survived by his sons, Herman, Jr., and Lawrence of Chicago; Paul and Harry of Proviso; a daughter, Viola and eight grandchildren. His wife died several years ago.

Capt. L. D. Powles Is Back from U. S. Service—and Is He Welcome!

L. D. ("Dee") Powles returned Friday from 30 days' service as captain of Company B, 411th quarter-master's regiment of the 2nd army division, U. S. Army Reserve Corps, at a Camp Jackson, near Columbia, S. C.

Captain Powles' arrival was hailed with relief and pleasure by a number of Antioch groups that have missed his business and civic services during his absence.

Among them are the Antioch garage, where he is employed as office manager and accountant; the Antioch Fire Department, of which he is president; the rescue squad, on which Herman Holbek and Herman Rosing have had to put in extra effort to make up for the absence of their captain; and the village board, of which he is one of the trustees, and from which he was one of the absentees who recently caused a break in its 20-year record of always having a quorum at its meetings.

Miss Elizabeth Webb, who has been confined to her home by illness during the past week, is reported as improving.

Candidates Stage Keen Rivalry for Committee Jobs

Spirited contests for the posts of party committeemen in two of Antioch's three precincts will be waged here next Tuesday. The competition is heaviest among the Democrats in Precincts one and two where two candidates each are campaigning for the coveted position which means party recognition and the attendant rewards that go with the position.

The pair of Democratic aspirants in Antioch 1 are Paul Chase and Raymond Sorenson, both of Channah Lake community who seek to replace Elmer Sorenson, who left the community to make his home and gain a residence in precinct 2. Chase is a state highway policeman and is a member of the Antioch High school board of education and was formerly president of the community club.

Sorenson, one of the younger justices of the peace in Lake county, is perhaps best known for his participation in and the promotion of sports, notably softball and ping pong. It has been due principally to his efforts that the sports have not only been kept alive here but also that Antioch has become widely known as a sports center. Last year's softball team was almost too good and it required careful attention to the schedule in order to provide real competition for the local stars of the game. Sorenson's responsible post as justice of the peace and his interest in civic affairs of his

Insurgent Voters Fail To Defeat Hartnell at Salem

Opponents of Veteran Try "Write-in" Campaign Without Success

Insurgent voters who flocked to the polls in Salem township across the state line in Wisconsin at Tuesday's annual election failed to remove from office the chairman of the board of supervisors, Arthur Hartnell.

Opponents of Hartnell who claim he has held office long enough sought to unseat the veteran chairman, and long the holder of the township's most important office, by writing in the name of Ray Paddock. Forces behind the candidacy of Paddock who engineered the eleventh-hour entry into the race, were somewhat unorganized, due to lack of time, and proved to be unable to cope with the well-organized supporters of Hartnell. The final count was: Hartnell 453, Paddock 141.

Joe Greenwald, 378, and Fred Meyers, 360, won the supervisor posts over Clarence Sheen, 273, and William Cook, 261.

Alfred Schmidt, lone candidate for town clerk, topped the township vote with 646, and Joe Fox defeated John Evans for treasurer, 468 to 273. Leo McVicar for assessor received 621, and Elmer Barthel, for justice of the peace, 548.

Geo. Higgins, 441, Elwin Manning, 524, and Homer Payne, 465, won the three constable posts over Leo Wagner, who received 256 votes.

Elected to the caucus committee without opposition were Wm. Barthel, Louis Jepson and Matt Reiter, with 17, 502 and 539 votes, respectively.

All Ready for Star Wrestling, Boxing Show

High Class Program Is Planned for Firemen's Benefit Friday

Expected to be the most elaborate sports show of the season is the boxing and wrestling match that will be staged in the Antioch Township High School gymnasium Friday evening for the benefit of the Antioch Volunteer Fire department's uniform fund.

Topping the card will be a double windup, one half of which will bring together Jim McMillen, well known Lake County wrestler, and Dynamite Gus Sonnenberg, former World's champion. The other half of the double feature will show Gorilla Grubmeier, rough and tumble artist, against Ruffy Silverstein, Illinois Heavyweight champion, and one of the classiest wrestlers since the time of Frank Gotch. Olaf Olsen, giant Swede, will clash with Seely Samara, colored sensation. Four amateur boxing bouts and a wrestling match between two Antioch boys for the Championship of Main street, will round out the card.

Boxing Card
Featured in the amateur boxing demonstrations that will be among the highlights of the program will be winners of the tournaments held recently at Antioch Township High school and at Grant Community High and McHenry High school.

John Chocouske, heavyweight champion of Grant High, will meet George Sterbenz, Antioch High school heavyweight champion.

The Shadow of Government

Government can move from the front doorstep right into the living room of the average citizen in many ways. But in no manner does the growth of government influence in the affairs of the individual—the lengthening shadow of government—become more plain than where taxes and spending are concerned.

Spending in this country has increased at a dizzy and dangerous rate in the past ten years. As a result, the United States finds itself drawing more and more heavily upon the resources of its citizens, and still not matching by many billions the rate at which the money is being spent. Not content with drawing on the present productivity of average Americans everywhere—farmer, businessman, small merchant, jobholder—government has come to depend more and more on income which, it is hoped, we will be able to produce in the future.

The extent of government spending today is revealed in its real and staggering proportions by some facts on the subject recently made public.

These figures show that it would have taken all the income received in 1939 by all persons living west of the Mississippi river to meet the total cost of government in the United States last year.

If you can visualize the myriad tax collectors in the nation whirling cyclone fashion—from Minnesota, through the Dakotas, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas, Nebraska, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, up all the dollars individual in the necessary to pay duties.

In other, hours of toil the Americans in did no more than to match the by our Federal, state, and local governments in a single year.

The long shadow of government continues to lengthen—and lengthens over the family and the household, the hard work and the thrift, of average Americans everywhere!

Vote on April 9!

It is the duty of every citizen to vote next Tuesday.

Any citizen who fails to exercise the right of franchise has little reason to utter any squawk about how his government is run.

Every election, at least during recent years, has been a mild form of "revolution," conducted via a method wisely provided by the founders of this nation.

When a majority of the populace "revolt" over how the government is run, they have recourse to the ballot to elect another set of public servants who will make the changes believed necessary or desirable.

Many times the electors are faced with the somewhat pitiful proposition of voting for the lesser of two evils. And again, election becomes a matter of turning the "inners" out and letting the "outers" in, with the patronage and prestige that goes to the winners.

Campaigns themselves generally are but periods of showmanship when the inners "point with pride" and those without the fold "view with alarm."

It is the solemn duty of the voter to inform himself from the most reliable sources and cast his vote in the interest of what he believes to be for the public weal.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

AMOS PLEADS FOR JUSTICE

LESSON TEXT—Amos 5:1, 10-15, 21-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate.—Amos 5:15.

Social justice, though much spoken about in recent times, has been the concern of right thinking men ever since sin entered the world and started man's inhumanity toward man. In the prophet Amos we find the eloquent and plain-spoken voice of one crying out against such conditions almost 800 years before Christ.

This lesson is one which is of utmost importance because in our present-day struggle with social injustice we have come to assume that it is primarily a political or economic question. Amos and all other Scripture rightly gets at "the focus of infection," which is sin. Sin in the heart leads to sinful actions, and these inevitably involve others, and thus bring about social problems. Let us learn from Amos to cure our social ills by bringing man to God.

I. Lamentation—In the Midst of Prosperity (v. 1).

From the little village of Tekoa and out of the wilderness in which he had been a herdsman came Amos, the man of God, to hurl his prophecy of disaster upon the heads of the complacent people of Israel and to take up a lamentation over those in Israel living in luxury and prosperity.

True it was that the common people were being ground under the heel of cruel oppression, but who cared about the poor as long as they could be squeezed for taxes to support the luxurious comforts and pleasures of the rich? A prosperity which does not reach the homes of the poor is not a real prosperity at all. When in addition thereto it encourages the "haves" to oppress the "have-nots" it becomes a grave danger, a real cause for lamentation.

II. The Reason—Sin Which Hates Reproof (vv. 10-13).

Sin is always a horrible thing, but when men who have fallen into sin are responsive to correction and ready to repent and forsake their sin, there is hope. The thing which made Israel's state so serious in the sight of God and of men was the firm of Houston & Co., insurance adjusters and appraisers, broomed was that they had only hatred for those who were bold enough to reprove them or to live among them according to God's standards (vv. 10, 13). "They who will endure no criticism have slammed the door in the face of truth. When we get to the place where we cannot endure having our faults pointed out, we are on the way to moral collapse" (Douglass). The sin which had thus hardened their hearts showed itself in social inequality and injustice which was built upon greed, oppression, corruption in the courts, etc. The shocking picture which Amos paints bears a surprising similarity to conditions in our world today. Let us face the problem and seek its solution.

III. The Cure—Seek Good Not Evil (vv. 14, 15).

God's Word condemns sin, but it always presents a remedy. In Christ we have the perfect, final, and complete answer to the sin question. Amos, speaking centuries before Christ, admonished Israel to repent and to turn away from the evil which they had cultivated with such assiduity and to be equally zealous about doing good. In the hope that "It may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious" (v. 15). How favored we are to be permitted not only to urge people to turn from evil to good, but to offer them the One who is the way, the truth, and the life.

Israel did not repent, but in folly depended on their religious ceremonies to satisfy an offended God. The prophet therefore declares that

IV. Religion Is Not a Substitute for Justice (vv. 21-24).

God had no pleasure in their religious observances and rites, because they were presented with unrepentant hearts and by hands which were soiled by the oppression of their fellow man.

Mark it well, God has no delight in the attendance upon church services, beautiful though they may be, does not listen to the sweet strains of sacred music, nor does He accept the rich "offerings" of those who live in unrepentant sin and who pay for magnificent church buildings and beautiful church services with money gotten by crooked dealings and social injustice. God is righteous and God's Word always cuts through the hypocrisy of men. Let us heed the plea of Amos, that righteousness should run through our personal and national life "as a mighty stream," and then we shall be ready both as individuals and as a people to worship Him aright.

A Gracious Lord

His work is honorable and glorious; and his righteousness endureth forever. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.—Psalm 111:3-4.

SOCIETY

Solomon LaPlants to Celebrate

Their Golden Wedding Sunday

WHEN Mr. and Mrs. Solomon La Plant were married on April 9, 1890, at 12 noon, in the home of the bride's parents, the minister, the Rev. Norman A. Miller of Millburn, arrived over mud roads in a horse-drawn two-wheeled sulky. On their golden wedding anniversary celebration, to be held Sunday, April 7, at their home in Antioch township, guests will arrive for the "Open House" in shining motor cars, over wide concrete or gravel highways.

When the LaPlants were married, Benjamin Harrison was president. It was right at the beginning of the "Gay Nineties." Bustles had just gone out, ladies wore plumed hats, men's trousers were short, narrow and cuffed, and a well-dressed gentleman's costume included spats and a derby.

After their marriage, the young couple moved into the house where they now live (it has been since remodeled), and, with the exception of five years, they have always lived there. They are well known throughout the lakes area, and many were the dances Mr. LaPlant played and "called" for in their early married life.

It is the hope of their five children and twelve grandchildren that all of their friends and neighbors will drop in to extend their good wishes on Sunday afternoon.

Primary Forecast . . .

Searcy is believed to be favored by Lake county voters, with Hugh W. Cross the runner-up in vote-getting. This may be the order of finish in the state.

For secretary of state, Justus L. Johnson, former clerk of the Appellate court, of Aurora, will lead the vote, it is believed, over Richard Yates Rowe and Arthur J. Bidwell.

Arthur C. Lueder, former postmaster of Chicago, is indicated as the winner over a field of ten candidates for State Auditor of Public Accounts. William R. McCauley of Olney, it is believed, will furnish the closest competition for the G. O. P. nomination.

A late checkup indicated that Howard W. Trevillion will receive the nod from Lake county voters for state treasurer, with Warren Wright and A. C. Lewis with next highest. It is believed that Trevillion will win in the state.

For Attorney General, George F. Barrett is believed to have the edge over the field of six candidates, including such well known names as Oscar E. Carlstrom, former attorney general, and Charles W. Hadley.

Fourteen seek the office of congressman-at-large, leaving much room for speculation as to the result of the voting. This is the office sought by William G. Stratton, son of the late William J. Stratton, former secretary of state. One of the best known names on the ballot is that of Stephen A. Day, which may have much to do with influencing the vote in his favor. Frank J. Mackey also is said to be favored by Lake county voters. Two are to be nominated.

George A. Paddock, Republican political leader in Chicago, seems to be the choice of Lake county voters to succeed Ralph E. Church for congressman from the tenth district. Paddock has backing in the Cook county part of the district that will be extremely difficult to overcome, however he is being given a close race by Drennan J. Slater, also of Chicago, and whose name appears first on the ballot. There are six names on the ballot for this office.

For delegates to the national nominating convention there are five aspirants with two to be elected, and the winners, according to present indications, will be chosen from the first three names on the ballot—Albert D. Lasker, James S. Kemper and William N. Erickson. For alternate delegates the Lake county choice among the four candidates seems to be Raymond H. Schumacher and George D. Dodge.

The choice for state central committee from the Tenth district seems to lie between James Simpson, Jr., former congressman from this district, and Thomas L. Hunston, head of the firm of Houston & Co., insurance adjusters and appraisers; also former superintendent of insurance of the state and formerly a major in Officers Reserve Corps. Both candidates mentioned are well qualified.

Support Strong
Senator Ray Paddock, first elected to the state senate from the 8th district (Lake, McHenry and Boone counties) in 1928, it is believed will have little trouble in defeating his three opponents—Richard B. Martin, Verne Corley and Albert E. Nordstrom.

That Nick Keller, able representative from the 8th district, will again lead the G. O. P. vote there is little doubt among the political prognosticators. As the campaign closes the naming of the second Republican nominee becomes a matter of conjecture with three aspirants conceded a chance. Rep. Harold D. Kelsey, former Lake county supervisor, may have a strong chance to repeat his victory of two years ago. The main threat to the Barrington farmer is C. Russell Allen of Woodstock, lone candidate from the west side of the district who has organization support, and whose backers are campaigning for a "plump" vote for the McHenry county lawyer, asking voters to mark for no other candidate. If this plan is carried out it means that Allen will receive three votes for every voter marking for him alone. That brings Willis A. Overholser, Libertyville lawyer, into the picture as a possible winner in the event the McHenry county candidate pulls a large Lake county vote from Rep. Kelsey. It's anybody's race until the votes are counted.

The state's attorney's race is a toss-up, with the candidates—Charles E. Mason, incumbent, Harry A. Hall and George McGaughy, running a neck-and-neck race for the county's best paying office.

It is believed that Coroner John L. Taylor will win his race for re-nomination and election to the office he has held for 40 years.

"Summer Roundup" to Be Held Wednesday, April 10

Wednesday, April 10, has been set as the date of the annual "Summer roundup" to be sponsored by the Antioch Parent Teacher association. Letters have been sent out to the parents of children who will be eligible to enter in the fall, inviting them to bring their children to the roundup for examination by a dentist and a physician, so that any corrective care that may be needed, as for eyes or teeth, may be arranged for the summer months and will not deprive the child of school time. Dr. E. J. Lutterman, dentist, and Dr. R. D. Williams, Antioch physician, will be in charge of the work this year.

WOMEN LEARN WHERE HOUSEHOLD CASH GOES

Advocating removal of sales tax from foods, Richard J. Lyons, Republican candidate for governor, demonstrates to homemakers how millions of their food dollars go to pay sales tax. He cites official figures to show that Illinoisans now pay $17,000,000 a year in sales tax on food.

Present Prices Favorable To Home Builders

Local Lumberman Sees 20% Increase in Industry This Year

Unusual activity in home building in this locality has prompted local contractors and material dealers to delve into statistics concerning the building industry, according to Ed. F. Vos, president of the Antioch Lumber & Coal company.

1939 was the best home building year since 1929 and 1940 promises to be at least 20% better than the past year, according to the estimates of competent authorities on the subject. There were 475,000 homes built in 1939 and conservative estimates indicate that the number of dwelling units which will be erected in 1940 will be 600,000. This will be more than the number of homes built in 1939 and is well on the way to making good the promise of a high level of home building.

The building industry has been steadily increasing each year since then.

Department of Labor statistics reveal that practically every factor is now favorable to the home builder. Lumber, for example, is now selling for less than the 21-year average price. Dimension and boards which cost $100 in 1926 can now be purchased for $93. Not only is lumber lower in price but the same thing is true of all building materials. Index figure average for 21 years for all materials used in home construction is 95.60. Today the index is 90.30.

Labor costs are only 12% higher than 1926 and 7% higher than 1929, according to the same source of information. However, this has been more than offset by the fact that modern materials now come to the job ready to use and also come to the job in such quantities that they make it possible to build houses with fewer man hours of labor.

Financing costs have been reduced nearly 85% and building money is plentiful. FHA loans are readily available and the FHA monthly payment mortgage actually saves the borrower $2588.80 on a $5000 20-year mortgage as compared with the old first and second mortgage loan. It is now possible to pay for a new home with rent checks. Monthly payments running from $25 to $30 will pay off the mortgage on many attractive small homes, as well as take care of interest, insurance and taxes.

Such widespread activity in the home building field has always resulted in advancing prices in the past and no doubt will cause advances again. It is the consensus of opinion of those in the building industry that home builders should take advantage of the unusually favorable factors which exist at the present time.

MRS. NIELSEN TREATS CLUB TO TURKEY DINNER

The members of the Thursday afternoon Pinochle club were entertained in elegant fashion last week by their hostess, Mrs. Louis Nielsen, who served a delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings. We wonder if perhaps this fine treatment of her guests had anything to do with the fact that Mrs. Nielsen won first prize for the third successive time. The members all agree that Rose can win first ALL the time if the outcome is another turkey dinner like this last one! Unum, Unum.

Besides Rose, the other prize winners were Mrs. Charles Smith, Miss Louise Smith and Mrs. William Malek.

JACKIE MEETS HIS MATCH

Perhaps it was a little late in the season, but just like Spring this year, the groundhog evidently got his dates mixed, for while out looking for his shadow (?) he trespassed on the Jim Culbertson property and Jackie, Culbertson's pet police dog, didn't like the idea one bit.

After all, it was his duty to see that no one trespassed, so he proceeded to bark and try to scare the little woodchuck away, but much to his amazement, the little fellow wouldn't "scare".

Instead he reared up on his hind legs and making a long nose, cried, "Nya, nya, nya, YOU can't scare me!"

Jackie was astounded, but try as he might, he couldn't budge the little fellow, who was bigger than his head.

On any property, well, let him pass. Nobody's gonna try to stop him, least of all Jackie. He's learned that size doesn't mean a thing when you meet up with a woodchuck! A woodchuck CAN chuck—and how!

Chas. E. MASON Merits the Support Of The Republican Party For STATES ATTORNEY

- HIS ATTITUDE ON LABOR . . . CHARLES E. MASON, himself a member of the American Federation of Labor, in cooperation with your law enforcing departments and Courts fought against labor organizations fostered by the New Deal. These subversive and communistic groups invaded our county, disrupted legitimate labor organizations of long standing and destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property. Mr. Mason's stand against these New Deal radical labor groups typifies his Anti-New Deal attitude.
- HIS ATTITUDE ON "BUREAUCRACY" . . . During his entire tenure of office Mr. Mason has had a constant struggle against New Deal radicals, posing as Democrats, whose Bureaucratic connections have caused them to threaten and attempt to obstruct every legitimate move made against them by your Republican State's Attorney. The whip hand of these New Deal agencies and their underhanded schemes to embarrass him have failed to stay the constant fight that Mr. Mason has waged against them.
- HIS ATTITUDE ON NEW DEAL TACTICS . . . As a matter of Republican principle, Charles E. Mason fought the illegal addition of Franklin D. Roosevelt's name to the primary ballot. Hundreds of Republicans throughout the nation acclaimed his stand in this matter. That the name is still on the ballots is evidence of the strength of New Deal office holders and their complete disregard for the election laws of the State of Illinois.
- HIS ADHERENCE TO REPUBLICAN IDEALS Charles E. Mason has conducted the State's Attorney's office in a manner that is a credit to the Republican party. Well staffed, efficient and capable, your State's Attorney's office has surmounted problems never before faced by a State's Attorney in this county. The conduct of this office has at all times been in conformation to Republican ideals and principles.

Sure Signs Of Spring

Spring is here when motorists dig out the road maps and lay their plans for seeking the "open road," and sailors the country over begin their annual "fitting-out" activities, preparing sleek water craft for the first jaunt of the season. Here Skipper Ted Skinner begins operations under the watchful eye of Miss Tony Clark, who motored down to the boatyard in her new 1940 Chevrolet.

High Spots on Record-Breaking Run

Signs of the times in a motor age—these highway markers tell the story of a two-year, 100,000-mile truck test run recently completed by Chevrolet. In Canada, Mexico and every state of the Union, the truck operated on all types of highways and under every conceivable weather hazard, setting a new world mark for sustained and certified automotive operation, under the sanction and official observation of the American Automobile Association. The unit carried a 4,590-pound "payload." An average of 15.1 miles per gallon of fuel was maintained throughout the 100,000 miles, at an average operating speed of 33.07 miles per hour. Oil mileage was correspondingly high—1,072 miles per quart.

A large number of the Masonic lodge in Kenosha went out to Antioch Wednesday evening to attend a special meeting held by the Antioch lodge. They left the train at Bristol, where they were met by members of the Bristol lodge and taken in sleighs to the little Illinois town, where they were given a royal welcome. After the meeting the entire company retired to the Simion hotel, where a banquet was served. Later the Kenosha men were driven to the home of K. K. Cass, where they spent the night. They returned on the early train in the morning.

Quoted in the Antioch News from the Kenosha Telegraph Courier.)

Mrs. E. A. Dorrance writes from Tucson, Ariz.—"This town is exceedingly old, even competing with St. Augustine for the fame of being the oldest in the United States. The houses are adobe, and built close together, enclosing a whole square without a mark to show where one house ends and another begins, for in days not very far away, the houses had to be built like forts to keep the Indians from slipping up slyly and stealing a child or a horse, or perhaps killing a few people. It is only since Gen. Miles and the late Col. then Lieut. Lawton captured Chief Geronimo of the Apache tribe in 1880 that the people of Tucson felt safe. . . . When I say the houses are adobe, I mean the majority, for people are putting up brick and frame houses there now. In fact, Tucson is modern enough to have 400 of them, and an automobile."

The near cyclone which swept over northern Illinois and other states last Saturday night favored Lake county beyond measure in that it took no lives, although displaying its fury in other ways. The hardest hit of any of the places in its vicinity was Alton. There the school building was completely demolished and will have to be entirely rebuilt. At Lake Villa the roof was blown from B. Hamilton's work shop. On the Dixon place east of Antioch, sheds and out-buildings were blown over and on the Joseph Savage farm the hen house containing three windows was blown over an over for some little distance without even breaking a glass, although several chickens' lives were sacrificed in the accident.

A freight wreck at Camp Lake was the cause of a delay of several hours in the train service last Monday.

Adv.—I will have a stock of buggies on hand about April 15. If you are contemplating buying, wait and see them. F. J. Hunt.

The cook at the Knickerbocker ice house here by mistake took carbolic acid from the cupboard last Tuesday thinking it was gin. Dr. Talbot was hastily summoned and relieved the sufferer and at last report he was in a fair way to recover.

Wrestling Show

sider him among the best in Lake county, will meet James Burke, McHenry High champion.

James Roepenack, Antioch, and George Jackson, McHenry, respective champions for their schools, will battle it out in the 140-pound class.

In the lightweight division, Emil Hospodar, Grant champion, and Robert Sturgeon, Antioch champion, will be featured.

Even the "flea weights" (75 pounds) have some agile exponents of the "manly art," with Don Bauer of Antioch Grade school, sponsored by the Snow White Ice Cream parlor, matched with Dobbie Boettcher of Ingleside-Grain Grade school.

Sonnenberg Seares 'em
Sonnenberg, a former title holder, was one of the first men to bring football tactics into the ring. Gus, a former All-American football star from Dartmouth, battled Ed Strangler Lewis into submission in 1930. He held the crown for five years and lost it to Henri DeGlane the Frenchman.

During the time he held the title and since, Gus has toured the United States and many foreign countries taking on all comers. Due to his peculiar size and build, and rushing tactics, he is one of the most feared men in the game. Dynamite Gus just recently returned from a trip to Australia, and is seeking to regain his title. When McMillen was informed that Sonnenberg expected to use him as a stepping stone, the Antioch farmer said, "Why that's just what I intend using Gus for. It's true I have been paying more attention to the police radio business than to wrestling for the past six months, but I'm still in good condition. The coming of the 'Angel' has stimulated interest in the wrestling business all over the country, and there appears to be plenty of dough to be made out of the game yet. That's why I have been doing a couple of miles on the road every day and taking a turn on the mat regularly. If Sonnenberg thinks he has a soft touch in me he is due for a surprise. The old stepping stone may turn into a stumbling block or something."

This match will give the folks a chance to see what will happen when two lying tackle artists get together. Rough and "Ruffy"

The Silverstein-Grubmeier bout promises to be a thriller. Grubmeier gave McMillen such a rough time of it on the mat a short time ago, that it is being speculated if he will be able to get out of it to fight the Grubmeier match. know how to go about getting into the ring with some of them. One day he saw where one of the Champions was due to train at Trafford's gym in Chicago, so he took his lights and hung around most of the day. The Champ finally appeared and when Ruffy asked if they needed any training partners to help the champ out they condescended to let him go in but warned him that they wouldn't stand any expenses for injuries.

There was great consternation when the little Jewish boy pinned the Champ twice in 14 minutes. Ed White, prominent Chicago promoter and Lake county farmer, was present that day and immediately took an interest in Silverstein. He gave him some pointers on how to get matches, and started him out wrestling on all the Chicago cards. He has met some of the best men in the game and has never lost a match, but the Champions give him a wide berth. Meanwhile Ruffy goes about his business of Athletic Instructor at the Jewish People's Institute in Chicago, keeping himself in condition by conditioning others, and looking forward to the day when the Champs are narrowed down to one, by the name of Silverstein.

There is a great deal of interest in the grudge bout between Bill Murphy and Carl "Hammermill" Pachay, two Antioch boys. Murphy appeared on last year's Firemen's show and his friends were so elated at his having wrestled a ten minute draw without collapsing, that they have continually regaled the populace with tales of his prowess. Pachay has determined to end the reign of Murphy and his friends haven't minded telling the folks just how this will be accomplished. The bout should be a dinger.

Tickets are priced at 50c and $1.00 and can be purchased from any Antioch fireman, or reserved by calling Klass' Clothing store, or Chief James Stearns.

It's Not So Easy
Fans who will journey to Antioch Friday night probably are not aware of the fact that many star wrestlers are hurt badly or crippled in the ring. Present day fans are given to scoff more or less at the antics of the big boys of the mat and take the attitude that it is all in fun anyway.

But regardless of how you look at it, there isn't much argument as to which athletes are the best conditioned and possess the greatest stamina. Now a football player is pretty well jugged out after a sixty minute game, the boxer is thoroughly tired after twenty or thirty minutes, the tennis player is pretty much of a dish rag after an hour or so of the class of tennis they play in the cup matches, but the wrestler is in the sort of condition that will permit him to work one or two hours night after night, and keep up the pace long after the other sportsmen have quit.

Ed White, Steinko and Stetson continued in the game long after they had passed the 45 year mark, and some of them are still at it. The answer is of course, perfect physical condition coupled with the ability to relax, and continual competitive action without lengthy layoffs. The fact that there is not a larger percentage of injuries is tribute to superb condition.

Jim McMillen, who meets Gus Sonnenberg in one half of the "double" windup has had a number of injuries from time to time, the worst being a cracked rib and separation of the collar bone from the shoulder, causing a two months layoff. Broken legs are not an uncommon injury. In fact Frank Gotch's career was ended, due to a broken leg received in a warm up match while training to regain his title from Stetcher. George Calza broke his leg against a second rater and was forced to retire. Several wrestlers have been permanently injured by striking their backs across the edge of the ring in falls through the ropes. Everett Marshall was forced to take a long layoff some months ago because of eye infection.

For many years wrestlers were subject to a form of trachoma, an eye infection until a method of preventative treatment was adopted that has largely stamped out the eye trouble among matmen. Many wrestlers have died from blood poisoning due to infected cuts received during bouts. Among these were the late Stanley Stasiak, Jim Browning, and Mike Romano. Often you hear fans speculate as to why the big bugs don't get hurt when they toss each other around. The answer is they do, and quite often.

Precinct Candidates

community is bound to be reflected in the balloting next Tuesday.

Perhaps the most interesting committee race is that in Precinct 2, where Einar Sorenson, oldest of the county Democratic committeemen, seeks to replace Charles Cermak, Jr., who was, when elected six years ago, the youngest member of the county organization.

Sorenson and his supporters are pointing to his ten years record as committeeman in Precinct 1, declaring that he is standing on his record as a good neighbor and humanitarian since he first came to the community 28 years ago. Backers of the candidate point out that he is in line for the county chairmanship, the highest honor the group can bestow upon a committeeman, and that his experience in county matters will enable him to best serve his precinct. Sorenson lives on his Goat Dairy Farm on Rt. 173 east of Antioch with his wife; he has three married children and two grandchildren. Among the local improvements which Sorenson has aided are the paving of Rt. 173, township fire district, and new schools and churches, and he has been influential in stocking the nearby lakes with millions of game fish during the last 10 years. He has also interested himself in farm problems and in the creation of a state park for Antioch community.

Charles Cermak, Jr., came into local political prominence in 1934 when he defeated two older and more experienced candidates for committeeman of Precinct two. Twice since, in 1936 and 1938, he was re-elected by substantial majorities. Known as an energetic worker and campaigner, Cermak has added to his following with each successive year through his active participation in church and social affairs, and his leadership, especially among the younger people. He is vice-president of the Lake County Young Democratic club, and has been an employee of the state highway department for several years. That he will give a good account of himself at the polls next Tuesday, is the prediction of friends of the candidate who wish to see him continued in office.

The lone Democratic candidate for committeeman in Antioch 2, but there V. Jackson. Friends of Jackson say they are planning to write in his name for nomination for state senator from the eighth district. No Democrat filed a petition for this office.

G. O. P. Contest Here
Fire Chief James Stearns is unopposed for re-election as Republican committeeman in Antioch 1, but there is opposition to present committeemen, C. K. Anderson in Precinct one and Albert Friedle in Antioch 3. Anderson's opponent is L. J. Lapsansky.

Republican leader and many important projects. Beth Louie has been a member known as Prenger & Co. years.

Anderson is one of the best of the Lake county Central committee and finance chairman for many years. Due to his extensive interests both here and in Chicago and elsewhere, he has gained a wide acquaintance, which has been of assistance to him in his work as a committeeman. His success in raising needed funds with which to finance campaigns has been a recognized aid to the county com-infection until a method of preventative treatment was adopted that has largely stamped out the eye trouble among matmen. Many wrestlers have died from blood poisoning due to infected cuts received during bouts. Among these were the late Stanley Stasiak, Jim Browning, and Mike Romano. Often you hear fans speculate as to why the big bugs don't get hurt when they toss each other around. The answer is they do, and quite often.

mittee and also to the state central committee. The pair are not waging a strenuous campaign, on the surface at least, apparently being satisfied to let the voters make the choice next Tuesday.

In Antioch 3, across the river, Arthur Gardner after six years retirement, comes out as a candidate to dispute the claims of Albert Friedle for re-election to the post he has held since defeating Gardner in 1934.

Dog Notice

Due to reports that rabies cases have been discovered among dogs in Lake county at various times during the past few months, and in order to prevent the spread of this disease into Antioch township, dog owners are requested to keep their animals locked up and under observation for 30 days. When exercised they should be muzzled and on a leash.

B. F. Naber, Township Supervisor, George B. Bartlett, Village Pres.
